NO. 18.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

Ed. Hatcher went to Cairo, Ill., Monday.

Go to W. S. King's for your merchandise.

R. W. Wilson of Jackson attended circuit court.

Buy your boots and shoes from W. S. King, Lutesville.

W. H. Miller of Jackson was in Marble Hill this week.

Dr. Smith of Ardeola arrived in Marble Hill Tuesday.

Judge Carter of Farmington arrived in Marble Hill Sunday.

Best stock of men and boy's fall clothing at W. S. King's.

Judge Fox came down Sunday and opened court Monday.

If you want Fresh canned goods go to A. & E. Miller, Lutesville.

See the add of Wann & Son, millers. Give them a trial order.

Why don't you go to W. S. King if you want to buy goods cheap?

Pressley Newell, aged 18, died yesterday morning of typhoid fever.

A few citizens of this place went to the barbecue at Bollinger Mills on the 2nd.

A man sat down on a hornet's nest; Quick his form arose and fell. It rose like a shot, but it didn't rise. One-half as high as his yell.

The advertisement of the Mayfield-Smith Academy can be seen in this number.

W. S. King has a full line of men and boys ready made clothing at his Lutesville store.

The regular September term of Circuit court is in session and working smoothly.

S. M. Meeks, formerly of this place but now of Thayer, Mo., arrived in town Monday.

Don't forget the new Restaurant and Grocery store run by A. & E. Miller, Lutesville. They sell cheap—you bet.

The Exposition is a big thing for St. Louis so is Kings Dry Goods Emporium for Lutesville.

Mr. Haze Ray, son of the editor of the Baptist Flag, of St. Louis, called at the Press office Wednesday.

T. M. Jones will have fresh meat for sale at A. Mayer & Co.'s every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday morning.

The melons shipped to New York by Mississippi and Scott county growers were a dead loss to the growers.

W. S. King of Lutesville will sell you Millinery goods as cheap—if not cheaper—than you can buy them elsewhere.

Preaching at the Christian Church on the second Lords Day and Saturday night before by Elder Robinson.

W. S. King keeps the People, supplied with all of the cheapest and best Groceries the the St. Louis Market affords.

One half fair will take you to the St. Louis Exposition but it costs you nothing to examine King's immense stock of Prints and dress goods.

Rev. W. A. Jinkins will preach next Sunday at Hahn's Chapel at 10:30 a. m. and at the Methodist Church in Lutesville at 7:30 p. m.

The friends of W. S. King, Lutesville, should not forget the fact that he is running a general store and would appreciate their patronage.

A WESTERN CORN SONG.
"With the sheaves we stuff our bed,
With the juice we make our liquor;
Ground, we bake it into bread,
Whole—it is the fire-place flickers."

Many people cannot go to see the Exposition at St. Louis but no one should fail to take a peep at King's notion counter. It is a thing of beauty and a joy to the eyes of the Ladies.

Farmers who consider it good economy to take good care of their teams find it pays every day at least, in the morning before commencing work and at night.

The new Restaurant and grocery store of A. & E. Miller is now open in Lutesville and Goods are being sold cheaper than ever before. The Goods are all first class. Come and get your lunches and something cold to drink. They ask a liberal share of your patronage. Call on them.

Keep plenty of pure water where the hogs can reach it at this season.

Take your produce to W. S. King to sell. He wants it at best prices.

King, of Lutesville, sells the best goods and sells the cheapest goods. Go and see him.

Send us the cash or a card if you wish your paper continued after the time paid for expires.

Wm. Beach, who is teaching school near Buchanan, says that his school opened with an enrollment of 32 scholars.

Business may go slow at other places but that is not the way it is going over the counter at W. S. King's cheap cash store.

The Canning Factory of this city has this season paid the Olen Fruit Company $1,500 for raspberries alone—Willow Springs Index.

Lawyers must be payed but they come a great deal higher than does the Dry good and Groceries sold by W. S. King of Lutesville.

J. D. Potter is now a citizen of Marble Hill; having moved into the Sandy property last week. A Mr. Myers and sister are living with him.

Mrs. P. W. Stammer and daughters, Misses Bertie and Edna, of Bismarck, left Wednesday last to visit friends in Sedwickville, and Marble Hill.

Bismarck Herald.

The protracted meeting, conducted by Rev. S. C. Biffle, W. A. Jinkins, and others, at Gravel Hill was a success, several conversions, and accessions to the Methodist church.

Chop cold boiled potatoes fine, and stir them into a cup of hot milk in which has been melted two tablespoonfuls of butter. Pepper and salt to taste. If you have cream, use this and half as much butter.

The federal election bill may pass. If you want a good quality of any kind of goods kept in a general store W. S. King, Lutesville, can furnish such goods as cheap as they can be purchased in the city.

If your hay crop is short it will be well to make preparations for the proper preservation of your corn fodder. Arrange to have it moved near the barn or cow sheds before it is seriously injured by the weather.

Your children all starting to school get them school shoes, wraps head gear, in fact every thing necessary to keep them dry and comfortable at W. S. King's cheaper than any where else in Southeast Missouri.

A Gentleman in Ralls county was subpoenaed on the grand jury a week or so ago and at once bought a suit of cloths and a ticket to Jefferson City, thinking grand juries all met at the capital of the state. This is no chestnut.—Mexico ledger.

A gentleman of Gravelton sends us the following:
Prof. L. N. Wager, formerly of this place, will return to his old home near here in October, and again take charge as principal and teacher of Concordia College. The Prof. and the citizens will spare no efforts to make the school as successful as it ever was before. All who are thinking of attending school this winter are requested to examine the school.

J. B. Tucker, an old citizen of Marble Hill, died very suddenly at his home Monday eve about the time the sun was sinking beneath the western horizon and leaving this hemisphere a hemisphere of darkness. The deceased had nearly a decade ago passed the time allotted unto man to live—three scores and ten year—he being in his 80th year.

O Death! the poor man's dearest friend, The kindest and the best! Welcome was the hour, his aged limbs, Were laid with thee at rest.

Any information as to the whereabouts of the girl mentioned in the paragraph below will be gladly received by her parents, and will reach them by addressing the "New Era, Cape Girardeau, Mo."

A farmer from near Mound City, Illinois, was here last Saturday looking for his little daughter, aged thirteen years, who, he claims was abducted. The abductors, he says, are two men and a young woman. They are traveling in a wagon drawn by two ponies. He tracked the abductors to East Cape Girardeau but there he lost all trace of them.—The Democrat.

Samuel Rhodes, who lives on the head of Hurricane Creek, about ten miles from town, took his gun—an old army musket—and started to the woods squirrel hunting and was never seen alive again. On Saturday evening his body was found lying beside a log about a quarter of a mile from his home. Rhodes had evidently seated himself on the log and placed the muzzle of the gun, which was loaded with buck-shot, against his left breast, and using the iron rammer to reach the trigger, discharged the piece with his own hands, tearing a hole clear through his body. Mr. Rhodes had been in a despondent mood for sometime, but no one supposed that he was intent on suicide. He was about 40 years old and leaves a wife and several children in reduced circumstances. No real cause for this rash act can be given.

Sheriff's Sale Under School Fund Mortgage.

Whereas, Henry Berry, by his certain mortgage deed, with power of sale, dated the 27th day of September, 1878, and recorded in book 12, at page 631, in the recorder's office of Bollinger county, Missouri, conveyed all of his right, title and interest in and to the following described real estate situated in Bollinger county, Missouri, to-wit:

All of lots No. seventeen (17), eighteen (18), nineteen (19) and twenty (20), in range "E" in the town of Marble Hill.

Upon this express condition, however: That if the said principal and securities should well and truly pay, or cause to be paid, the said sum of borrowed money, and all the interest there on, according to the tenor and effect of said bond, that then, and in that case said mortgage deed should become void; and that if default should be made in the payment of said sum of borrowed money, or the interest thereon, or any part thereof, at the time when they should severally become due and payable, according to the tenor and effect of said bond, that then the then acting sheriff of Bollinger county aforesaid should (without any suit on said mortgage deed) proceed to sell at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash in hand, the property therein conveyed and mortgaged, first giving twenty (20) day public notice of the time, terms and place of sale, by publication in some newspaper published in said county; and out of the proceeds of said sale to pay the cost attending such sale, and then the debt and interest due the county of Bollinger as aforesaid, which mortgage deed was recorded in the office of the recorder of said county of Bollinger in book 12, at page 631.

And, whereas, the county court of Bollinger county aforesaid, by an order made and entered of record on the 16th day of August, 1890, did find that default has been made in the payment of the said sum of money, according to the tenor and effect of said bond, and that the said Henry Berry is now indebted to the said county for the use of said school fund in the sum of two hundred and five dollars and forty-one cents, principal and interest, computed to this date, due and unpaid upon said bond, and then and there directed that judgment therefor should be entered against said principal and securities in said bond, and that an order of sale of the property described in said mortgage deed should issue to satisfy the same, now, therefore, I, John Huskey, sheriff of Bollinger county, state aforesaid, by virtue of the said order of the said county court and by the authority in me vested by the same mortgage deed, I will on Friday, September 12, 1890, at the west front door of the courthouse, in the town of Marble Hill, Bollinger county, Missouri, between the hours of 9 o'clock a. m. and 5 o'clock p. m. on that day offer at public sale, to the highest bidder for cash in hand, all the right, title claim and interest that the said Henry Berry had in hand and for the above described real estate.

John Huskey, Sheriff.

GUARDIAN'S NOTICE.
Notice is hereby given that George W. A. Mayer was appointed by the Probate Court of Bollinger county, Missouri, on the 18th day of August, 1890, guardian of the person and estate of H. P. SHERIFF'S SAFE UNDER SCHOOL FUND MORTGAGE.

Whereas, Thos. J. Gaither and James H. Girdley, by their certain mortgage deed with power of sale dated the 14th day of May, 1888, and recorded in book (2) at page 39, in the recorder's office of Bollinger county, Missouri, conveyed all of their right, title and interest in and to the following described real estate situated in Bollinger county, Missouri, to-wit:

The southeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section twenty (20) township 39 range 9 east, containing forty acres more or less.

Upon this express condition, however: That if the said Principals and securities should well and truly pay, or cause to be paid, the said sum of borrowed money, and all the interest thereon, according to the tenor and effect of said bond, that then, and in that case, said Mortgage Deed should become void; and that if default should be made in the payment of said sum of borrowed money of the interest thereon, or any part thereof, at the time when they should severally become due and payable, according to the tenor and effect of said bond, that then the then acting Sheriff of Bollinger County aforesaid should (without any suit on said Mortgage Deed) proceed to sell at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash in hand, the property therein conveyed and mortgaged, first giving twenty (20) day Public notice of the time, terms and place of sale, by publication in some newspaper published in said county; and out of the proceeds of said sale to pay the cost attending such sale, and then the debt and interest due the county of Bollinger as aforesaid, which Mortgage Deed was recorded in the office of the recorder of said county of Bollinger in book (2) at page 39.

And whereas, the county Court of Bollinger county aforesaid, by an order made and entered of record on the 15th day of May 1890, did find that default has been made in the payment of the said sum of money, according to the tenor and effect of said bond, and that the said Thos. J. Gaither and James H. Girdley is now indebted to the said county for the use of said school funds in the sum of one hundred and 81 dollars and 94 cents principal and interest, computed to this date due and unpaid upon said bond and then and there directed that judgment therefor should be entered against said principal and securities in said bond, and that an order of sale of the property described in said Mortgage deed should issue to satisfy the same. Now therefore, I, John Huskey, sheriff of Bollinger County, State aforesaid, by virtue of the said order of the said County court and by the authority in me vested by the same mortgage deed, I will on Friday September 12, 1890, at the west front door of the courthouse in the town of Marble Hill, Bollinger county Missouri, between the hours of 9 o'clock a. m. and 5 o'clock p. m. on that day offer at public sale to the highest bidder for cash in hand all the right, title claim and interest that the said Thos. J. Gaither and James H. Girdley has in hand and for the above described real estate.
